

Halleluja lasst uns singen

Text: Heinrich Bone (1813 - 1893)

Melodie: bei J.B.C.Schmidts, Düsseldorf 1836

Music staff 1 (Measures 1-8): Treble clef, 4/4 time, key signature one sharp. Notes include quarter notes and eighth notes. The lyrics are: Hal - le - lu - ja, lasst uns sing - en, denn die Freu - den - zeit ist da! Hoch in Lüf - ten lasst er - kling - en, was im dunk - len Grab ge - schah!

Music staff 2 (Measures 9-16): Treble clef, 4/4 time, key signature one sharp. Notes include quarter notes and eighth notes. The lyrics are: Je - sus hat den Tod be - zwung - en und uns all - en Sieg er - rung - en.

Music staff 3 (Measures 17-24): Treble clef, 4/4 time, key signature one sharp. The Roman numeral IV is written above the staff. Notes include quarter notes and eighth notes. The lyrics are: Hal - le - lu - ja, Je - sus lebt, Je - sus lebt, Je - sus lebt!

Music staff 4 (Measures 25-32): Treble clef, 4/4 time, key signature one sharp. The Roman numeral I is written above the staff. Notes include quarter notes and eighth notes. The lyrics are: Hal - le - lu - ja, Je - sus lebt!

Halleluja let's be singing

Text: Heinrich Bone (1813 - 1893)

Melodie: bei J.B.C.Schmidts, Düsseldorf 1836

English words: S.Knöpfler, 2010

Hal - le - lu - jah, let's be sing - ing,

High the mes - sage shall be ring - ing: for how the grave of has joy lost is its here! fear.

Je - sus's beat - en The Grim Reap - er, He is ou - r vic - t'ry's keep - er.

IV

Hal - le - lu - jah, Je - sus lives, Je - sus lives, Je - sus lives!

I

Hal - - le - - lu - - jah - - Je - - sus - - lives!